FROM : Chief, Orientation Faculty, IS

SUBJECT: Weekly Activities Report #11, 12 - 18 March 1958

1. Summary:

1. Intelligence Orientation #19 ended on 14 March. Exam results indicate an average distribution of grades.

2. The staff has been meeting regularly this week to develop plans for the I.O. phase of the new JOT training program to be launched this fall.

3. I.O. staff members attended an OCB meeting addressed by Mr. Dulles, on 17 March.

2. Significant Items:

Nothing to report.

3. Other Activities:

A. Intelligence Orientation

1. Intelligence Orientation #19 ended on 14 March. The student group of 63 ranged in grade from GS-5 to GS-15 and in length of service from less than 6 months to 16 years. The DD/I and DD/S Offices supplied about 3/4 of the student body, with the rest coming from DD/P. Grade curve on the final exam was average. Students were industrious, well motivated, and participated more actively than usual in seminar discussions.

2. [] to make an analysis of all students with more than 20 wrong answers on the examination, to determine the factors that led to their poor performance. Results of this study may prove helpful in determining a better method of evaluating poor students in the future.

3. [] has drafted a tentative schedule for I.O. #20 which begins 14 April.

Also possibly of teaching them.

B. Exhibits

A large group of Agency personnel, estimated at 200 turned out for the Support Exhibit on 12 March 1958. An entirely new Security Exhibit was on display. By invitation, about twenty chiefs and deputy chiefs [redacted] who were in Washington attending a special course, attended the exhibit as did several ranking officials from the Office of Security.

C. Special Projects

The staff has been holding several meetings this week to formulate plans for the new JOT course, scheduled to begin in September. After preliminary discussions, [redacted] drafted a proposed program of three to four weeks in consultation with other staff members. The course would emphasize the national security policy of the United States, our foreign policy and world commitments, as an introduction to the role which intelligence plays in government. The staff will submit a proposed curriculum to the Chief, Intelligence School, later this week.
